Afternoon Folks,

Just thought I'd give you a quick update as we're off to the Easter Thunderball this weekend (looks cautiously out of the window).. Andy will be blogging with www.eurodragster.com so you'll be able to get updates from Tog's great site

I'll be keeping our facebook page and twitter accounts up to date, The facebook page can be found here :

www.facebook.com/redvictor

and you'll find us on Twitter at <http://twitter.com/#!/theredvictor>

Also, where I can, I'll be trying to get some video up onto YouTube to keep you guys up to date with how we're getting on.. Our youtube channel is here:

alternatively, there's a youtube section on our Facebook page.

If you make it down to the Easter Thunderball at Santa Pod, make sure you come and say hi, slinky (that's me) will be in the pit all weekend and will be happy to chat about the car and answer any questions you may have.

Hope to see you there, if not, enjoy the online coverage!
